About the Estate:

Château LEYDET VALENTIN is located on 8.87 hectares (21.91 acres) in Saint-Emilion, at the border with Pomerol. This farm was bought by one of Frederic's ancestors. The estate was subsequently passed down by women of each generation. This is why the name of the owners has unceasingly changed since the 19th century. Frederic's father Bernard LEYDET began running the estate in 1962 with only few hectares then, and bought a few more hectares up until the time of his death in 2006, improving the quality of the vineyard and wines produced.

Aging is done on lies in oak barrels renewed by 1/3, with no racking and with a strict minimum of sulfur. Frederic LEYDET hasn't made any fining since the 2001 vintage & certified Organic since 2015 Vintage.

As for his subtle Château de VALOIS Pomerol, Frederic LEYDET only has in mind to reach a total expression of his exceptional LEYDET-VALENTIN terroir, neighboring famous classified growths (including Château CHEVAL-BLANC 1st Classified Growth Cat. A). Unmatchable bouquets, savors and opulence can be found in Château LEYDET-VALENTIN.

Tasting Notes:

Dark in color, pure, vibrant, fresh, dense, generous, savory, balanced and intense... Exceptional ratings to superbly award the absolutely delicious 2018 Vintage Chateau Leydet-Valentin.

Food Pairing: Suggested food pairings include gazpacho, duck confit, and hazelnut chocolate macaroons.

2018 Vintage

"The deep garnet colored 2018 gives up notions of baked cherries, warm plums and mulberries with hints of Indian spices, tobacco and iron ore. Medium to full bodied with a firm frame of fine grains tannins and great tension, it finishes on a lingering mineral note" Lisa 91/93+ Pts Wine Advocate / Primeurs

"Rich, slightly chunky bouquet of cassis, toasted bread, and spice that comes together nicely with time in the glass. Medium to full-bodied on the palate, with lots of fruit, moderate tannins and a good finish, it's a textured, balanced Saint-Emilion". 90/92 Pts Jeb Dunnuck jebdunnuck.com

"The 2018 Leydet-Valentin is jammy, inky and absolutely delicious. Super-ripe dark cherry, plum, espresso, menthol and licorice infuse this sumptuous, super expressive Saint-Emilion. All the elements are in the right place. The 2028 should drink well right out of the gate. There is much to admire in this plush, creamy Saint-Emilion". 89-92 Pts Antonio Galloni - Vinous

"A firm, chewy red with blackberry, wet-hearth and mushroom character. It's medium-bodied, intact and fine. Chewy at the end. Really well done." 92 Pts James Suckling jamessuckling.com

"Slender with plenty of fruits and with touches of species, this wine is charming and deep, distinguished sensation in palate as the alcohol and body are balanced by the freshness of the tannins". 91 Pts Bettane & Desseauve

"Ripe black fruits and dark-chocolate flavors highlight this powerful wine. There's a bit of pepperiness from the alcohol, while freshness comes from the black-currant acidity." 90 Pts R. Voss Wine Enthusiast

"Warmed plum and cherry preserve flavors glide through easily, laced with hints of cocoa, tobacco and singed cedar." 88 Pts James Molesworth Wine Spectator

"Revealing attractive blackberry, mulberry and cedar scents... there is a good acidity that cuts through the muscular finish." Neal Martin Vinous

"Coup de Coeur" Revue du Vin de France 2018 Vintage, Vignobles Leydet.
